TO THE MEMORY OF YURY L'VOVICH DALETSKIĬ

This issue is dedicated to the memory of Yu. L. Daletskiĭ, who was a prominent mathematician, a member of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine.

An author of more than 175 books and papers, Yu. L. Daletskiĭ has made a significant contribution to different branches of mathematics. His diverse interests included the theory of evolution equations and measure theory in infinite dimensional spaces, stochastic differential geometry, infinite dimensional Lie groups, non-commutative differential geometry.

The pedagogical talent and scientific excellence of Yu. L. Daletskiĭ has helped many of his students to earn the degrees of Candidate of Sciences and Doctor of Sciences, to become Chairmen, Deans, Directors in academic and educational institutions, academicians.

As one of the founders of this journal and a member of the Editorial Board, Yu. L. Daletskiĭ has helped to establish the journal and always worked to make it still better.

Editorial Board